

TESORI is an innovative lighting system designed for creating light architectures. They made of Extruded polystyrene foam (XPS) and coated with polymer based acrylic resins allows for the creation of ultra-lightweight linear profiles. They feature specially designed seats to house cutting-edge LED circuits with quick connection. This versatile system meets any design needs guaranteeing extraordinary light comfort for every application.

